Eggs Under a Red Flag (Paperback)

By Ulric Killion

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 202 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The book is a discussion about several aspects of Chinese culture. Even the title of the book, Eggs under a Red Flag, reflects the latter theme, because it presents an implied-query, which begs the question - so what about Chinese culture, the Chinese family system, and the Chinese people? The latter question also gives rise to a host of other issues and questions. One such issue or question is what the real stories behind the red flag are. For instance, these are the issues or questions that make us wonder why the Chinese people seem to excel in the sport of ping-pong, but not the sport of soccer; why Chinese cuisine seems to constitute an integral part of the lives of the Chinese people and their culture; why some Chinese men, officials or wealthy businessmen have second wives; and a host of other issues, questions, and stories. For these reasons, the book and its title, Eggs under a Red Flag, also presents the sub issue of what are the real stories behind the red flag. These are the...
