

Confessions of a 21st Century Math Teacher (Paperback)

By Barry Garelick

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .An honest and critical look at math education from the inside, from the author of Letters from John Dewey/Letters from Huck Finn For anyone concerned with what Common Core is bringing about in the name of 21st century math education, STEM education, and 21st century skills, this book is a must-read. I am not an outright proponent of the philosophy that If you want something done right, you have to live in the past , but when it comes to how to teach math there are worse philosophies to embrace, Barry Garelick explains as he continues from where he left off in his last book (Letters from John Dewey/Letters from Huck Finn). He describes his experiences as a long-term substitute teacher at a high school and middle school. He teaches math as he best knows how while schools throughout California make the transition to the Common Core standards. It is the 50th anniversary of key historical events including the JFK assassination and the Beatles arrival in the U.S. It is also the 50th...
