Accountability Office, 2007 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)182552592 Subject: Administrative procedure -- United States. Excerpt: . . . either in writing or in person, but are required to disclose such 24 communications in the public record. The rules require a person making an oral ex parte presentation that includes data or arguments not already reflected in that persons other filings to submit a disclosure to the record 25 summarizing the new data and arguments. The rules state that the summary should generally be more than a one or two sentence 26 description and not just a listing of the subjects discussed. When there is ambiguity about whether data or arguments are already in the public record, FCC encourages parties to briefly summarize the matters discussed at a meeting. FCCs ex parte rules also establish the Sunshine Period, which begins when FCC releases the Sunshine Agenda of items scheduled for a vote at a public meeting and ends when those items are released to the public after the vote or are removed from the agenda before the meeting. During the...
