[.] Never mind, said H., resolutely, the pony can take us to it in fine weather, and in winter we must not want to go to London. We started the next morning by rail, and found the Cottage almost as pretty as it had appeared on paper. But, alas! it been let the day previous to our arrival, and we had to return to town minus five dollars for our expenses. The next day, nothing daunted, -indeed, rather encouraged by finding the house we had seen really equal to our expectations, -we set off to view another villa, which, from the particulars we had received from the agent, appeared quite as attractive. This time we found the place tenantless; and, as far as we were concerned, it would certainly remain so. It had been represented as a highly-desirable country residence, and[.].
