And gracefully be still received The granted wish--the want relieved. Euphrosyne. And graceful be the tone subdued, And home-felt charm of gratitude. Enter The Parcje. Atropos. I, the eldest, am invited At this festival to spin-- Much for you and me to think of In this tender life-thread thin. That the threads be soft and pliant, Must the fla-x be sifted fine; And, that they flow smooth and even, Fingers skilled must press the twine. If, at revels or at dances, Blood beats high; oh! then let wake Caution. Think how short the measure: Think that the frail thread may break. Clotho. Be It Known, to me the scissors, In these last days, they confide: By the late Administration, None were pleased or edified. Husky yarns the dull old woman Left to drawl a weary time; Clearest threads, of brilliant promise, She cut...
