No; I was out, down by the river bank, and I brought down the finest deer you ever set eyes on. He was under the bunch of pecan-trees, and I let him have it straight in the neck and brought him down the first crack. Now what do you think of that? Ralph Radbury s rather delicate face was all aglow with excitement and pardonable pride, as he spoke, leaning on his father s gun, a long, old-fashioned affair that had been in the family s possession for many years. Ralph was but a boy of eight, although years of life in the open air had given him the appearance of being older.
