Hesperus Press Ltd, United Kingdom, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 192 x 122 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. A sailor makes his way along the Uruguayan coast of the Rio de la Plata. Reaching the radio station Pacheco, a stopping point for all mariners wishing to contact the mainland, he places a call to his wife. When a male voice answers, and the line falls dead immediately afterwards, the seaman begins to wonder whether it is the technology or his wife s fidelity that he must doubt. Fusing wit, tenderness, disillusionment, and passion, the vignettes in this volume are united by Belgrano s idiosyncratic and award-winning narrative style. Engaging with Argentinian popular culture and history, the author presents a cast of characters variously engaged in rehabilitation, subterfuge, affairs of the heart, and even, unwittingly, cinematography.
