Some of the topics covered in this devotional reading book: - Daily devotional reading- Daily devotions- Bible reading- Devotional readingIf Your Dearest Should Die will provide comfort and assurance to anyone whose loved ones are facing death or have recently died. Because death is the great unknown, we all have questions about what happens to our loved ones when they depart this world. This brief booklet provides clear and succinct answers based on the scriptures. Brokhoff writes honestly and compassionately about a subject that is difficult for many to face, and he emphasizes that death is not something to be feared -- instead those who die in Christ should welcome it as the natural passageway to a glorious eternal life in heaven. Brokhoff's insight into the meaning of death for Christians offers hope and support to all -- and he outlines specific steps, such as Begin Life Anew, Forgiveness Cures Grief, and Go To Church, that can help survivors cope with their sorrow and move on with their lives. John R. Brokhoff, one of America's leading preachers, teachers, and writers, was an influential professor of homiletics at Emory University's Candler School of Theology. Brokhoff also served as the pastor of Lutheran congregations in Virginia, Georgia, North Carolina, and Pennsylvania, and was the author of more than 30 books for CSS Publishing Company, including the original versions of the ever-popular Lectionary Preaching Workbook series plus three-volume series on Preaching The Parables and Preaching The Miracles for Cycles A, B, and C.If Your Dearest Should...
