If you are one of the millions of women who have turned (or will turn) to online dating websites to help you find Mr. Right, this new book could mean the difference between failure and success. Most women dream about their wedding. The shiny ring the flowing white gown the moving ceremony tear-filled family and friends exchanging vows and of course the romantic honeymoon. But for many, the online search for Mr. Right brings far different emotions. Frustration rejection anger depression. They invest their heart and soul in the process, but remain alone discouraged and lonely. But now, in this enlightening book, Taylor Banks provides valuable insights and practical action steps you can take to greatly improve your chances of finding Mr. Right online. What makes this book unique First, the author is a man. So he thinks like the person you are trying to attract. You will discover why it is crucial that you learn how to see your online profile from a mans perspective. The book is also unique because Taylor Banks has been there. During his three years of dating online, he read over one thousand womens profiles on several dating sites. He was shocked at how many of the comments women made about themselves painted extremely negative impressions in the minds of men. Obviously, the women thought their comments were acceptable. But through the eyes of a man, these comments often made women come across as demanding, self-centered and unapproachable. These misinterpreted remarks, many of which are explained in the book, drove Banks quickly away to the next profile. He often thought, If only she knew how bad that sounds. Eventually, Taylor Banks found...
