Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Book of Genesis: A Translation From the Hebrew in Which the Constituent Elements of the Text Are Separated, to Which Is Added an Attempted Restoration of the Original Documents Used by the Latest Reviser In the year 1758 Jean Astruc, a celebrated physician, published a work called Conjectures sur les manuscrits originaux qui ont servi Moïse pour écrire la Genèse. Leclerc (Dies. III. de Scriptore Pentateuchi) and R. Simon (Hist, critique du Vieux Testament, livr. i. ch. 7) had previously pointed out the existence of two distinct documents in Genesis. M. Lenormant observes that while every verse of the Pentateuch has been discussed minutely and word by word with the view of determining its origin, the details of this necessary labour have become so complicated that only a professional critic can obtain a general view of its results. This induced him to undertake the present work, in order that the conclusions of the specialists might become more generally known, and, if his lamented death had not interrupted the project, he...
