By this co-operation, and by this alone, will we be able to serve this new industry as it should be served. FINANCE; INDUSTRY4 SAO IN AW f (By Staff Correspondent.) AGINAW, September 20. --The rapid growth of this city, especially within the last few months, is reflected in the 18-45 man-power registration of the 12th. Saginaw city and county went over its estimate, about 11, 000 being registered. Another indication is the fact that at the U. S. Employment Bureau office Monday morning there appeared before John W. Clark, the representative, 150 men from Flint and 50 from Alma. Many of these applicants were placed at work at once. It is a somewhat strange condition for Saginaw to be entertaining labor applications from two cities which during the last few years have claimed many men from this city, but the ship yards and the fact that Saginaw manufacturers are right in line with the war work policy and have many contracts have brought conditions which demand many more workmen. President George H. Hannum and Managing Secretary J. B. Kirby, of the Board of Commerce, at the directors meeting last week advocated the consolidation of the two telephone systems in this city. Their plans were endorsed by the directors and now the movement has progressed to a point where it has the indorsement...
