V Before proceeding to quote from his Journals on these subjects, or to narrate the position of affairs in relation to them, we must first glance at other matters concerning his own personal history and the movements of the time. Jan. 1st.--St. Giles s. Here I am in Quarter Sessions: the same vice, the same misery--population increasing, and crime also. The evil and the danger growing hand in hand, and yet not an attempt at remedy! Jan. 10th.--Lord Londonderry has invited the formation of a league to attain the repeal of my Colliery Bill! Sharp practice, seeing that it will not come into full operation before next March! I see that the proposal is received with favour in Scotland. I can hardly believe that the Parliament will so speedily reverse its decision, or the Government their support. It is, however, another element of anxiety, and another subject of prayer. I must make great efforts in the next Session. The night cometh when no man can work. All seems on the turn for a retrograde movement, so far as my measures are concerned. The Ten Hours Bill has no favour; the Colliery Bill little apparent success; my motion on Education is below the horizon, yet blessed is he that endureth to the end. These things may be trials to harden the steel and polish the weapon. A grand oration by Gladstone at Liverpool in favour of Collegiate Institutions and education of middle classes. The...
